Other Requirements:

1. Write and enclose with this application an essay about your musical goals, experiences or why you study music. Also address what you expect to gain with private music study or an instrument upgrade.

2. Teacher Recommendation

Reminder to Applicant/Music Teacher: The private music study/instrument upgrade scholarship program is considered need-sensitive, meaning that students with apparent need are preferred over those without noted need. Please address any known financial need (student qualifies for reduced lunch, single parent family, multiple siblings, etc.) in either the applicant's essay or the letter of recommendation from the music teacher.

Completed application, essay and teacher recommendation should be sent to the address at the top of the application. Please contact Keri Shultz, President, at (610) 376-3395 with questions.

Applications are accepted throughout the year for Private Music Study and Instrument Upgrades. RMF's Scholarship Committee reviews applications at its quarterly meetings.
